

COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

ALEX H. TATE, LOCAL EDITOR.

Saturday Morning, Aug. 8, 1857.

We understand, that a Camp meeting will be held at Orangeville, in this county, commencing on Thursday, the 20th instant.

We understand that our "obliging Host" of the Exchange is fitting up a Balloon, underneath the Hotel. We wish him every success in his enterprise, and are glad to see any improvement that may add to the prosperity of our town.

Colonel.—On last Monday, Afric's Sons and Daughters, held a Jubilee at Orangeville. Our town sent quite a number of the noble gallants and their ladies.

"Come, and trip it as we go
On the light fantastic toe."

On Saturday last, we had another very fine shower; it commenced about six o'clock, in the evening, and for about an hour the rain came down in torrents, and soon little rivers of water were seen running in the street.

On Monday evening last, Sheriff Miller, accompanied by Mr. Morris Van Buskirk, arrested two passengers on board the Packet Boat on its arrival at Bloomsburg. The Sheriff had received a despatch from Mr. Moseley of Pittston stating that his wife had eloped with a man named Bryant Yard. They were placed in our jail, and remained there until Wednesday morning last, when they were taken back to Pittston, by the Constable of that place.

ORANGEVILLE.—We had occasion, says the Montour American, to visit the little town of Orangeville a few days ago. It is located in Columbia county about six miles northwest of Bloomsburg, and was laid out, about thirty years ago by Mr. C. Ricker, who is still living and enjoying a name in green old age. The village was long known by the name of Knobtown, from a Mountain Knob in view of the place. The population at present numbers between two and three hundred inhabitants, whose occupations comprise the various mechanical trades generally prosecuted in a village where they can boast of no large enterprise to give tone and vitality to its business affairs. Orangeville contains three public Houses, three Stores and two Churches, the Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal. The best Hotel in the place is kept by Jacob Good. His establishment is very neat, commodious and inviting, and we take much pleasure in commanding his House to our friends, especially those who may attend the approaching Camp Meeting, as Mr. Good is making every preparation to accommodate his guests with comfortable quarters. The buildings in Orangeville, are generally constructed of wood, neatly painted, and present a pleasant appearance. The Post Office is kept by a very agreeable and accommodating gentleman of the Democratic school, and we are told very unfortunately the majority of the villagers entertain the same political faith.

DEC'D.—Of all persons, none are so dangerous and despicable, as professional hypocrites. No man is nearer your mortal foe, than he who greets your presence with a smile, but when absent assails your reputation with vile slanders, which he supposes you will never hear, or if heard will not suspect he is the author of them. He professes to be your friend; you are his; and while confiding in him, and suspecting him of no deceit, like a paltry coward, he stabs you in the dark, and repays your friendship with calumny, which is too frequently received as truth, and which you cannot refute, because not present. No words can describe the indignation and loathing which one feels toward such a contemptible object when he detects his real character. Such persons may be successful temporarily in concealing and disguising their deformity, but eventually it will be exposed to the scorn and contempt of every sincere man and woman in community. The man—to use the ordinary phrase—whose "faults lie on the outside," can deceive nobody; neither does he desire to do so. You see, know, and understand him; he approaches you in a disguise, and discloses his real sentiment toward you by his external demeanor; he scours to insinuate himself into your good graces, Judas-like to betray you, and invites no confidence by which to possess himself of the means for doing you an secret injury. Go where you will, and you will find these Uriah Heeps infesting every department of society. Like a slow poison their operations are unseen, but their influence is destructive of the peace of community. There is but one remedy for this evil; and that is to avoid and shun their presence at all times and places, and treat them with that contempt which their treachery deserves. Sincerity is an element of human character which always adorns its possessor, although it manifests itself, sometimes, in an inelegant manner. He is your best and truest friend, who makes known your faults to you, and conceals them from others; who desires your excellence; exercises charity toward your misfortunes. "From all hypocrites, Good Lord deliver us."

NOTH BRANCH CANAL.

COL. TATE.—The receipts of Canal Tolls, at this office, are as follows:

Previously reported, $60,816 15 July, 27,158 71

Total, 87,974 86

Respectfully yours,

John S. FOLMER, Collector.

BLOOMSBURG MARKET.

CORRECTED WEEKLY AT HARTMAN'S STORE

Wheat, $2 00 Butter, 20

Rye, 1 00 Eggs, 12

Corn, .90 Tallow, 14

Oats, .50 Lard, 15

Buckwheat, .75 Potatoes, 75

White Beans, 1 75 Dried Apples, 20

Directions accompany each box. Price $1. Gold whole sale and retail, by

GEORGE M. HAGENBRUCH,

General Agent, Bloomsburg, Pa.

He will supply the trade at the proprietor's price, and send the Bills to ladies (confidentially) by mail on receipt of $1 through the Bloomsburg Post Office.

MARRIAGES.

On Thursday 30th ult., by the Rev. D. J. Waller, James W. Eder, of Buck Horn, to HELENA, daughter of Reuben Bomby, of Hemlock.

On the same day, by the same, WILLIAM P. LEEDY, of Buck Horn, to Miss MARY ALICE WELLIVES.

On the 23d ult., by William Kitchen, Esq., Mr. P. W. SHINDLE, of Philadelphia, to Miss Emma Lewis, of Danville.

DEATHS.

In Benton, of scarlet fever, on the 23d of June, RUTH ALICE, aged 8 years, 5 months and 25 days. And on the 30th of June, MARY JANE, aged 6 years, 1 month and 17 days. Daughters of John Q. and Margaret Dilidin.

The Saviour kindly calls
Our children to his breast;
He folds them in his gracious arms;
 Himself declares them blest.

"Let them approach," he cries,
Nor scorn their humble claim;
The heirs of heaven are such as these;
For such as these I came."

In Berwick, on Thursday morning last, LAWRENCE, son of John and Ann Buch, aged 2 years, 3 months and 10 days.

JOINT AND LAP SHINGLES. for sale

May 26, 1857. A. C. MENSCH.

STONE COAL for sale by

H. W. & W. N. CREAMY.

MORTICINE FOOTS on hand and for sale at the Arcade by A. C. MENSCH.

COTTON and Wool Carpet, for sale cheap at the

May 20, 1857. A. C. MENSCH.

25000 LAP SHINGLES, FOR SALE LOW BY

H. W. & W. N. CREAMY.

SHAD for sale at

HARTMAN'S

April 11, 1857.

OLIPHANT, WOODSIDE & CO.

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

Wines and Liquors,

No. 407 Arch St. above Fourth,

PHILADELPHIA.

J. McALPIN, J. WOODSIDE, Geo. McALPIN.

January 13, 1857. Y.

ROSENDALE CEMENT.

PERSONS wishing Rosendale Cement can find it by calling at the subscriber at Rosenthal's

J. H. BAEDMAN.

April 11, 1857.

FRESHMIRE & BROTHERS.

WHOLESALE

TOBACCO DEALERS.

90-105 NORTH THIRD STREET

FIRE DOORSTEEL, PHILADELPHIA.

January 10, 1855.

HORSE LINIMENT AND CATTLE POWDERS.

FOR SALE at the office of the Columbia

Democrat.

—ALSO—

Docks, Blanks, Stationery, Marriage Certificates,

6c, 8c, 10c.

GREENWOOD SEMINAR.

THE next School Term at this Institution will commence on the 17th of August. Thoroughly related teachers have been engaged for the ensuing year,

but everything will be under the general oversight

and control of the President.

For terms, see, etc., see another column.

WM. BURGESS, superior.

June 21, 1857.

POSTSCRIPT.

Death of Ex-Secretary Dobbin.

Richmond, Aug. 5.

HOB. JAMES C. DOBBIN, late Secretary of the Navy, died at Fayetteville yesterday.

Death of Mrs. Campbell.

Philadelphia, July 31.

The wife of ex-Pastor General Cambell died here this morning.

Suicide of Gen. Rusk, of Texas.

HON. THOMAS J. RUSK, United States

Senator of Texas, committed suicide, at his residence, on the 29th of July, by shooting himself through the head, with a rifle.

TO THOSE WHO WANT FARMS.

A FARM WITHIN THE REACH OF EVERY MAN.

THE RIDGWAY FARM COMPANY has made an offer to any person who deems it worth

the purchase of a home can do so.

The farms consist of the best timelands off the most superior quality for farming, in a rapidly improving section, with high roads, and a large amount of timber.

They are situated in the midst of a thriving population, and have a large amount of labor available.

They are well suited for dairying, and are well adapted for raising stock.

They are well suited for raising stock.